

I am using IVIS Plus in a network with the main badging station in Security. What do I need to use for another department to be able to access the data?

Using a PC with Data Entry software will allow other personnel to enter new records, change existing data and perform searches. Data Entry software has the same capabilities as badging software except that it will not capture images or signatures. Please consult your salesperson to get the correct software to meet your needs.