

Are audit reports available?

VSC2 Standard, Enterprise and SDK offer the ability to audit operations performed by system users. The report will document changes and other operations performed on individual records.