

I can preview and take a picture in IVIS Plus, however when I am done cropping, I get a CAM_BAD_READ error. What is causing this?

This indicates that the COM port speed is set faster than the computer system allows. Try lowering the speed one level at a time until you find a speed that works well with your computer.

View an example of the port speed setup box below:

