

If our payroll software is updated do we have to change anything in Import Wizard?

As long as the file format, which is exported from your payroll system doesn't change, no change is needed in Import Wizard. If a change was made, reconfiguration may be necessary.