

What are the main features of VSC2 Enterprise?

- Unlimited databases and user definable structure
- Unlimited number of data entry fields
- Connects to ODBC sources
- Unlimited designs for badges, reports and back side of badges
- Unlimited configurable data entry screens
- One photograph, signature and fingerprint per record
- Store images inside or outside the database
- User selectable format for storage of images
- Comprehensive security system. Define privileges for each individual use
- Audit trail of users and records
- Mass export of images
- Data export facilities
- Unlimited number of photographs or fingerprints per record
- Automatic badge selection, based on field values
- Distributed image storage, for more capacity and better performance