

Can each badge be assigned to different printers?

With VSC2, a badge can be designated to a specific printer. Therefore, it is not necessary to change the default printer as different designs are selected. Badges will print to the direct-to-card printer while dossiers and reports are automatically directed to ink or laser printer. This avoids costly errors and wasted material and time.