

How are the images stored in VSC2?

In VSC2EZ images are stored inside the database in JPEG format.

VSC2 Standard, Enterprise and SDK allow the user to define whether the images are stored inside the database or as individual files outside the database, linked via a field. The image format is user definable.