

Can images be imported from graphic files?

Yes, images can be imported from graphic files to each individual record. The program allows the picture to be correctly cropped and the brightness and contrast adjusted before merging it with the record.